

Benefit Request

If your financial difficulties prevent you from making timely payments on your student loans(s), you may be eligible for a Reduced Payment Plan. To qualify for this reduced payment plan, you must request and provide documentation that you meet at least one of the following eligibility criteria:

- You have been granted an economic hardship deferment under the Federal Family Education Loan Program (FFELP), the Federal Direct Loan Program (FDLP), or the Federal Perkins Loan Program for the same period of time for which you are requesting an economic hardship deferment for your Loan.
- You are receiving payment under a federal or state public assistance program, such as Aid to Families with Dependent Children, Supplemental Social Security Income, Food Stamps, or state general public assistance.
- You and all co-signers have a medical condition that necessitates an extended leave of absence from work and can demonstrate that you do not have the assets to make payments on time.
- Economic Hardship Forbearance may be granted based on income and family size.

Payment Plans granted at the loan holder's discretion for a few months as an alternative to regular monthly payments.

The Payment Plan begins on the date the eligible condition first existed, as determined by the loan holder. The Payment Plan ends on the date the eligible condition ends. You must continue making your regular monthly payments until a Reduced Payment Plan is approved. You will receive written notice of the approval or denial of this request, after it has been processed.
